

The Academy for Jewish Religion presents:

Pluralism2.0

Decision Making on Pluralism's Boundaries

Sunday, March 10
2:00 - 5:30 pm

FREE and open to the public

Town and Village Synagogue

334 East 14th Street (btwn 1st and 2nd Ave.)
Manhattan, NY

For more information, contact:
jhoffman@ajrsem.org 914-709-0900 ext. 16

www.ajrsem.org

Speakers Include:

Dr. Ora Horn Prouser
Academy for Jewish Religion

Rabbi Brad Hirschfield
CLAL

Rabbi Mike Uram
Hillel at UPenn

- The word “pluralism” is so overused that it has almost been drained of meaning.
- Pluralism does not mean anything goes.
- Community Day Schools, pluralistic organizations, and Hillel groups establish boundaries as they make decisions about policy and practice.
- Merged congregations struggle to define who they are, and, in the process, who they are not.
- How do we hold those conversations and make those decisions with integrity and respect?

ACADEMY
for JEWISH RELIGION

ORDAINING RABBIS AND CANTORS
FOR ALL JEWISH COMMUNITIES

co-sponsored by

Clal
The Hebrew word for inclusive